So proud of how much he has come on, thank you Simonside.

*So proud of * and he could not of come as far as he as without the valuable support of all members of staff at Simonside. Each one has gone that extra mile and helped *, took time out to understand * and support * on his learning journey – thank you.*

I can't wait for * to learn new things in the future at Simonside School, I am so thankful for his teachers preparing him so well.

* has come on leaps and bounds, I am really impressed with his school report and the way * is being taught.

We are pleased with * report, he always enjoys going to school and is eager to say what he has learnt/done. He enjoys the homework set and its great to see his ideas and the finished article.

I was extremely pleased with * report, he has grown so much in knowledge and confidence. He loves going to school and learning. His teachers have been fantastic and we really appreciate the work they do.

The format of the report is a simple structure making it easy to break down, it allowed me to understand the progress made and the help he will need.

* report is fantastic, we are thrilled at his progress.

Thankyou to * and all other staff you are brilliant.

* has developed a lot this year and accomplished more than I expected!

We are thrilled what a brilliant year * has had, thank you to all the teachers actively involved in teaching and supporting *.

✓ I truly feel she is on the way to fulfilling the school moto of Dream, Believe and achieve

* is looking forward to starting a new year in September, she loves Simonside!

* has done really well this year and has progressed amazingly.

✓ I have seen a massive boost in * confidence.

Fantastic report with some great comments to work on for next year

I am especially grateful for the dedication and support we have received.

I am really pleased with the progress * has made since starting the school, she has been made to feel really welcome and has gained so much in confidence.

We are so pleased at everything * has achieved while attending Simonside. When we transferred * here we were worried how the change would affect * schooling but I have to say it was a great decision as * was welcomed to your school and as a result has come on fantastically, Thank you!
